REPORTS ON CLIMATE CHANGE

Gender and Climate Change: A Climate Equity Vision for now

Asar Social Impact Advisors

This report recognises that women's voices and issues are absent from a large number of policy measures focusing on mitigating climate change and adapting to its impacts. It thus presents a framework to address women's vulnerability to climate change

Read the report --Climate Change Performance Index: Results 2023

by Jan Burck, Thea Uhlisch, Christoph Bals et al

This report aims to keep track of the developments and amendments in climate policies, both national and international, as well as to analyse the interests of the countries formulating these policies
